

Late Swim Check - Missed swim checks at check-in? Need a redo? No problem! Stop by the pool during Session 1 to complete your swim check.

First Responder - For this adventure, Webelos learn some basic first aid and emergency preparedness skills. They learn to respond to situations like choking, shock, bites and stings, cuts, cuts, burns, and more.

Snorkeling - No gills? No problem! Explore underwater with the help of a mask, snorkel and fins. Scouts need to have passed the Swimmers test.

Swim Lessons - Get comfortable in the water and learn to hone your skills. Practice makes perfect, and staff is here to help you reach your goals. This is for Non-Swimmers and Beginners only!

Aquanaut - For the Aquanaut adventure, Webelos learn about safety in the water while swimming and boating and practice their aquatics skills. All Swimming Abilities welcome.

Kayaking- Scouts will learn how to use a solo craft while boating on 14 mile creek. Scouts will know how to properly use equipment such as a paddle and how to correctly operate a kayak. This is the first time in 30 years scouts will have the opportunity to take a kayaking class at TMR. Scouts must be a swimmer to take this class.

Canoeing- Scouts will be able to use teamwork to paddle 14 mile creek, along with an opportunity to go underneath the bridge. Scouts will know how to properly use equipment such as a paddle and how to correctly operate a canoe. Scouts must be a swimmer to take this class.

Nature Hike- Enjoy a relaxing nature hike to tunnel mills very own Silent Falls, learn about the most common plants found on camp. Dip into the history of tunnel mill as we hike past some of the major historical landmarks on camp.

Crystals- Come create crystals with us as we learn about how crystals form naturally and where you can find crystals close to home. We will look at everything from the types of stones that are classified as crystals to how geodes are formed.

Bird Studying- Did you think bird watching was the only way to learn about our fabulous flying friends? Think again friend, in this class we will adventure in building a bird's nest and learning about everything from what they eat to where they fly and why.

Build Nature Book- For our AOL scouts only, these scouts will have the chance to build their very own field guides, ones they can use all week at camp and in the future any time they go camping. Scouts will have the chance to pick out plants and animals that matter to them and create pages to help them find these plants and animals next time they venture out into the woods.

Shield Crafting- Come make your own shield to protect yourself in battle! You'll get to decorate and have your very own shield.

Chemistry- Come learn about the chemical reactions in our potions and mixtures and how to make your very own.

Electricity- We will be teaching you about the ancient lost art of electricity and how to make circuits.

Chess- Come learn how to play chess and play against one another to find who the chess master is!

Art- come make some art outside with a mixture of materials and get creative! We will also be making a clay sculpture of your very own!

Rifle- Morning classes will focus on requirements with limited time for shooting. Afternoon classes will focus on shooting and honing in on the scouts ability to hit the target with accuracy. Ample time will be given for shooting in the afternoon class.

Archery- Morning classes will focus on requirements with limited time for shooting. Afternoon classes will focus on shooting and honing in on the scouts ability to hit the target with accuracy. Ample time will be given for shooting in the afternoon class.

Slingshots- Classes will focus on both the patch and the pin requirements and have ample time for shooting technique.

Knife Safety- Earn your Whittling Chit by demonstrating proper knife handling and safety procedures.

Knots- Learn how to tie some of the basic knots and determine their proper uses.

Cooking- Complete the Cast Iron Cooking adventure by understanding what goes into a balanced meal and making a meal plan with a budget.

Fire Building- Be taught how to assemble the components of a fire and use them to build one of three structures.

Shelter Building- Learn the essentials to preparing a solid shelter with minimal resources.

Orienteering- Discover how to use a compass and map the distance between targets.

Fishing- Spend some time on the waterfront relaxing and trying to catch fish.