

We are all, first and foremost, members of the Boys Scouts of America. The basic rules governing Camp Crooked Creek begin with The Scout Oath and The Scout Law. These words should be familiar to us all and should guide us in our daily lives.

The policies and procedures set forth in this Camp Guide provide a framework for the behavior of each Scout and adult while they are at Camp Crooked Creek. The discipline of campers is a Unit level responsibility and is not the responsibility of the camp management. Discipline will be maintained in the program areas by our staff, but serious issues will be brought to the attention of the Unit leaders.

- The Scout Oath and Scout Law will be my guide throughout camp.
- I will treat Camp Crooked Creek as I would my own home. I will not deface or vandalize any property.
- I will use camp equipment in a safe manner and for its intended purpose and will return the equipment in good condition.
- I will treat all other people with the utmost respect and dignity.
- I will respect diversity – whether the differences be in physical characteristics or perspectives.
- I understand the importance of following BSA's Youth Protection and safety policies and will follow those guidelines and report all violations that come to my attention.
- I recognize that hazing or bullying of any form has no place in Scouting. As a Scout I agree to prevent and stop all hazing or bullying activities. I also understand that serious cases of bullying will result in my expulsion from camp.
- Responsible use of knives is an expected part of the BSA outdoor program. However, the use of a knife or other sharp object in any kind of threatening manner will result in an immediate expulsion from camp.
- I have the responsibility not to engage in behavior that constitutes discrimination or harassment in any way including race, color, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability, or citizenship of an individual. This applies to everyone, including fellow campers, staff members, adult leaders, parents, and outside vendors.
- I have the responsibility to report instances of discrimination or harassment (directed at me or at others) to the camp director or the Scout executive.
- Serious and/or repetitive behavior violations including use of tobacco, alcohol, drugs, cheating, stealing, dishonesty, cursing, and fighting may result in expulsion of the camper.
- Neither Camp Crooked Creek nor the BSA local council will be responsible for loss, breakage, or theft of my personal items. I will label all my personal items and check items of value at the direction of adult leaders. Theft on my part will be grounds for expulsion from camp.
- I will show respect for the Scout uniform by always wearing it properly.
- I will support the staff by maintaining a positive and enthusiastic attitude always.
- I agree to follow a quiet time and remain within the assigned Unit campsite between the hours of lights out and sunrise in consideration of Camp Crooked Creek policies.
- Serious violation of the Code of Conduct by campers may result in expulsion from camp.
